Terms and Conditions: Training Units are not for resale, and are used solely for training purposes. These units are not covered by any warranty. Training boards available to purchase separately, and not included in the training. C.O.D. and Account customers must settle the full training amount before the training commence. Vision Automation reserve the right to postpone the training course should we do not have 5 or more attendees. The course fee is standard, and no discounts of any nature applies, be it trade or settlement. Trainees cannot have their PLC upgraded nor exchanged at anytime; the one included is part of the training package. PLC's issued in this course may vary. Cancellations: The client hereby agrees that once this registration form is completed and received by our office, Vision Automation will not mitigate its losses for any less than 50% of the total contract value. No cancellations will be accepted after the booking has been received, confirmed and entered into the participation register. To be accepted, cancellations must be addressed and advised to Vision Automation. Delegate substitutions are welcome at any time although cash alternatives will not be offered. Vision Automation will not be responsible for covering Hotel, Airfares, or any other costs incurred by the participants under any circumstances. In the unlikely event that Vision Automation cancels the training, Vision Automation retains the right to transfer this booking to another Conference to be held in the proceeding six months, or a credit of an equal amount to another conference of like discipline within six months. Indemnity: Under circumstances beyond the control of Vision Automation, changes may be made to the Venue, Speakers, or the Training cancelled due to any act of terrorism, Industrial action or extreme weather conditions. Vision Automation shall try to reschedule the event but the client hereby indemnifies and holds Vision Automation culpable from any and all costs, damages and expenses, including attorney fees, which may be incurred by the client. The Laws of South Africa to the exclusive jurisdiction of whose courts the parties agree to submit shall govern the formulation, validity and performance of this contract or agreement in every and all respects.
